As requested, I have reviewed the Weisfeiler case and divided the material into the following categories:

- Case Summaries (includes Rettig Committee conclusions)
- Contacts and Interviews
- Diplomatic Notes and GOC communications
- Attempts to Re-open case (1989-1990)
- Outside Interest in the Case
- Background - Colonia Dignidad
(Includes interviews with former residents)

The information contained in the case summaries provides an excellent overview and gives a detailed account of actions taken in the case. Therefore, an additional summary does not appear to be necessary.

Nearly all of the information contained in the file is classified. Little useful information could be obtained from the unclassified material and so I recommend that the entire file be kept together and considered classified.

Because of its possible interest to the political section, I have sent copies of the magazine articles from the background section on Colonia Dignidad to Arnold Chacon (see attached memo).

Please let me know if you would like me to take any further action on this matter.
